

TEX-247-SUSPR.V.1-

TEXAS
State

Wilson (247)
County

SUTHERLAND SPRINGS
Town or Vicinity

VIC.

7s

9p

2d

Structure "Whitehall" (TEX-326)
(Colonel Joseph H. Polley House)

3 miles N. on Farm Rd. 539. Local stone, coursed rubble, 53'3" (five-bay front) x 46'3", two stories, gable roof, two-story porch across front. Center-hall plan.

"Whitehall" also includes a separate log kitchen, 15' square, with stone fireplace and chimney, and, as shown in photos, a stone cistern. Built between 1848 and 1854 by Joseph H. Polley, a native of New York, who came to Texas as one of the Austin colonists. 7 sheets (1936, (over) including site plan, plans, elevations, section, details) 6 ext. photos (1936), 1 ext. photo kitchen (1936), 1 ext.

FN-38

photo log cabin (1936); 2 data pages (1936).

Card prepared July 1975.

Ref: Various feature stories in S.A. Express
Family Papers, University Archives
